5th and 6th class school tour!

On Tuesday the 21st of June. The 5th and 6th Class met at Kent Station at 6:30 am for their school tour. At 6:45 they made their way onto the train. And at 7:00 the train left the station. They spent 2 hours and 30 minutes on the train before reaching Dublin. They got on a bus that was parked outside the train station. The bus drove them to Collins Barracks.

There they made their way around the museum. They learnt loads of new information about 1916. After an hour and a half they got back on the bus and drove to Glasnevin Cemetery. Here the tour guide gave them lots of interesting information. They even got to touch Daniel O'Connell's coffin and go inside Daniel O'Connell's tomb. When the tour finished they got to go into the gift shop. When everyone bought what they had wanted to they got back on the bus and drove to Burger King. There they picked out a burger from a choice of different burgers. It was delicious. After they had eaten they went to Kilmainham Gaol. There they got a tour of the Gaol. They got to see where the 1916 leaders had been kept. It was a great experience. After an hour they got back on the bus and drove to Heuston Station. They got to shop for about 20 minutes before getting back on the train. They got back to Cork around 8:35pm. Everyone had a great day!
